PLEA TO THE PRESIDENT

Dear Mr President.

Since the beginning of the pandemic, the world has taken a turn for the worst, a countless number of people have lost their loved ones, some lost their jobs, and learners had lost the opportunity to fully communicate with others physically. This led to learners using the internet as a platform for education, communication and self-expression. The internet opens learners to a world that's intelligent of modern-day human life, providing access to what is good, beneficial and enriching.

Children and youth are helpless to the effect of this wide range of dangerous substance and action. Online sexual abuse requires a sharing duty between the open industry and government. A developing number of government commission, task focus, scholar's and institutions have recognized the noteworthy dangers associated with unfitting internet access by youth, and they have called upon government, arrangement, producers, caregivers, industry and education to take action.

My appeal is for the government to initiate a program that launches some form of a unit of internet authority to pamper for the unruly behavior of internet abuse towards victims by addressing abusive user's actions and prohibiting the IP addresses of abusive user's for a momentary time period, until consequences have been faced by abusive user's.

Kefilwe

PLEA TO THE PRESIDENT

Dear Mr President.

As a 13 year old living in South Africa, I would've never thought that we would go through such tough & horrible times. Where woman & children are being assaulted & hurt. Where there are people who are treated as if they are slaves, judged by their skin colour & living on the streets. Constantly putting each other down & treating each other as if we were made to do such, but we were created to love each other, to spread joy & to accept each other.

When I grow up, I will help prevent all these doings, whether I am alone or not. The world should be a safe place for humans of all skin colour, of all race & of all gender. We should never be ashamed of our dreams & we should be able to express ourselves & help others express themselves. We should appreciate & celebrate one another. We shouldn't judge, put down or lower each other, we should uplift, respect & love one another. We should be the change we wish to see in this world.

So Mr. President I request of you to please start hearing us out, taking action alongside with us and helping people like myself across the country to prevent and put all these common issues to a stop.

This country is ours and it's our responsibility as a whole to make it a better place, but we really need our most important leaders to help us alter this country.

PLEA TO THE PRESIDENT

Dear Mr President.

As a young girl in South Africa, my plea to you Mr President is that you please work on improving the safety of children and women by fighting against Human Trafficking in South Africa.

Human trafficking is one of the challenges we face as a country. I believe that more attention, state resources and effort should be put in place, in order to ensure that less children and women end up missing without a trace in and around our country.

It is the governments duty to ensure that every South African citizen lives in a safe environment. Therefore urgent measures should be put in place to fight against human trafficking and make South Africa a safe environment for us children,our beautiful sisters, Aunts and mothers.

Ayanda

PLEA TO THE PRESIDENT

Dear Mr President.

As a member of the South African youth, it is part of my duty to educate my peers on how to grow our society for a better tomorrow.

It is my duty to educate them on things such as being a feminist, GBV, BLM and many other situations/pandemics that the whole world is facing.

Young people have forgotten about all these pandemics. They have forgotten that their time will come to lead the nation. That is why I pledge to open their eyes and to help lead the blind across the street.

Yes I know that it won't not be easy but it is better trying and failing than failing without trying and also keeping in mind that: SUCCESS IS NOT FOR THE LAZY!

My plea is that can our senior leaders take us into consideration, listen-to and support us youth pioneers in this movement of creating awareness of the issues mentioned above and creating a better future for generations to come.

It is also our duty as the youth to bring about change to this country and as the youth we shall grow tomorrow's economy but with your help as well of course.

Dembe
