QUEEN BLACK 7

This is Rea Mabusela also known as Queen Black 7. Rea is 13 year old girl from South Africa with big dreams. She's an actress who had her big break in 2017 staring in a South African soapie Rhythm City, then she had a supporting role in Broken Vows and further went to star in adverts for Dark 'n Lovely, Nelson Mandela 20 years of inspiration television advert. As if her resume wasn't impressive enough, she released her first 6 Track EP titled "The Queen Unleashed" which included her first single "#Kar-Attacking Abuse" which highlights the need for an end to Gender Based Violence and her second single, self-titled song "Queen Black 7". Impressive right?! She has been partaking in Karate tournaments and has received National Champion status.

But that's not the end, Miss Rea saw the need to give other talented children a platform to showcase their talents, then 4 Us AmazingKids Magazine was born.

So, Rea, before we go any further, please tell us about 4 US AmazingKids Magazine and why you started the magazine?

I started 4 Us AmazingKids Magazine after I came across a disturbing poster stating that 20 million South Africans go to bed hungry every night. I started coming up with business ideas to help me raise money. The magazine revolves around the predominant empowerment of children's talents, skills, and recreational ideas. We also give future generations a platform for their voices to be heard and understood and hopefully be involved in decision-making.

Has it been difficult being an editor?

No, it has not been difficult at all. I have people who always help me to be able to get the job done, and it is something that I enjoy doing. So I, therefore, enjoy editing the magazine.

How do you scout the cover models?

Well, I advertise on social media platforms such as Instagram and Facebook. Most of the time, we get approached by them. Then we look at their achievements and other requirements to be featured in the magazine.

In terms of your acting career, can we still hope to see you on our screens?

Of course, acting is one of the things that I enjoy doing and definitely will be for a long time.

Any actor/actress/producer who would like to work in the future?

There are many actors I would love to work with, but at the top of my list would be Zendaya. Hove her. She proved she could take on any role, no matter the difficulty. I love her personality. I would love to also work with the Producer Kenny Ortega. He is a director that has made many masterpieces such as High School Musical and the series Julie and The Phantoms.

Are we expecting more music from you? Maybe a feature-length album?

I am very much planning on releasing an album soon. I have been in hibernation for way too long, and now it is about time I get back in the game.

Are there any artists you would like to work with or feature on your next album/EP?

One artist that I would love to work with would be Ms. Boity Thulo. She rocks, from her beats to her raps and her flow.

If you could have any superpower, what would it be?

Teleportation, traveling from Paris to London would be a cool superpower. It can also help escape someone hostile trying to hurt you.

What is the most adventurous thing you have ever done?

One of the most adventurous things I have done was in the 3rd-grade camp trip, where we had to walk through the woods at night and had to stand in the middle of the woods and close our eyes for 5 minutes.

If you could have one day where technology does not exist, meaning no cellphones, video games, etc. How would you keep busy?

I would read as many books as I could. I love reading. So if we were to be in a world without technology, I would read a lot.

If you had a chance to write a book, what would it be?

I would write a novel about a young black girl who isn't rich nor equipped with enough assets, but she dreams big and does everything in her power to reach her goals no matter what obstacles she faces.

What are your current goals for this year?

To reach out and help as many children as I can through 4 US Amazing Kids Magazine. To get at least five acting jobs and also release an album.

Where would you like to see yourself in 5 years?

I would love to see myself as an international actor and musician, and I want to see my businesses grow.

What is the most challenging thing you have done, and how did you succeed?

One of the most challenging things I have done was writing the lyrics of one of my songs, called The Prayer. When I had the beat and the concept of what I wanted to do, executing the lyrics to make it good was not an easy task, but with the help of my family, especially my brother, I was able to get through with it.

Who is your role model, and why?

My role model is my mother. She is the most hardworking, committed, and fearless woman I have ever met. She does everything in her power to make sure that her family succeeds in every prospect and will always put our happiness first.

If you could be president for one day, what would you ensure happens?

I would love to see all the corrupt politicians immediately removed from their seats. I would also make sure that children are involved in decision-making.

It would be overcoming the fear of dogs and being shy. I have succeeded by learning to be confident about myself. Also, I trust and believe in myself and am bold.

My 1st role model is Zozibini Tunzi because she shows confidence in herself and is a proudly black African woman.

My 2nd role model is Nomzamo Mbatha because she brings acting into life. She is entertaining at the same time.

If you could be a president for one day, what would you like to happen?

I would like to see those in need given job opportunities and more sponsors for schools' children's needs.

THE IMPORTANCE OF KARATE

By Tebogo Phoshoko-Mdhluli Photographs by Amogelang Mabusela

The father of modern karate Gichin Funakoshi said "The ultimate aim of karate lies not in victory nor defeat, but in the perfection of the character of its participants."

And what better way to improve one's character then to join Karate. The benefits of Karate practice is that not only does it help physically by building stamina, improving coordination and reflexes but also develops the mind and one's mental capabilities, giving a brief explanation to the famous quote by Gichin Funakoshi, the founder of Shotokan – "mind and technique are to become one in true karate."

One of the most important benefits one can walk away with is the art of Self-Discipline, knowing that you can probably win in a fight but choosing to take the high road and walking away is very admirable. It is something everybody should learn to possess.

IMPORTANCE OF KARATE TOURNAMENTS

Karate tournaments can provide young students with valuable insights into their own strengths and weaknesses, both in terms of karate skills and the student's ability to perform under pressure in a competitive environment. It's not really easy for a parent to evaluate their own child's progress without having an unbiased opinion. So Participating in karate tournaments like this is a neutral way for not only the parents but also the students to assess their skills level in comparison to their competitors. Karate tournaments like the tournament held by JKS SA on the 23rd of October 2021, is also a way for young athletes to forge and build friendships within the Martial arts community. The JKS SA National Championships 2021 saw karateka's from across the country head to Johannesburg to compete, and seeing so much talent and passion from these young athletes was amazing. We even had our own Editor compete and she walked away with a silver medal in the Kata category of her age group.

HEY MR DJ

STOMP YOUR FEET AND CLAP YOURS BECAUSE DJ JEROME IS IN THE BUILDING

MEET JEROME MOCHITELE, AN ASPIRING 17 YEAR OLD DJ, WHO HOPES TO BE ONE OF THE BEST DJ'S IN THE COUNTRY

How did you get into DJing?

I got into DJing with help of a friend who had a similar passion. It started off as hobby then I started to take it serious.

Can you describe your style of music (genre etc)?

I am mostly into house music (old and new school), Amapiano and now I am into Techno music.

What has been your most memorable moment in your DJing career?

My most memorable moment was when I received an opportunity to perform live with DJ Hoodrich at the Enigma Fridays Gigs alongside THE LOWKEYS, I learnt a lot and it was truly an amazing experience.

Do you have a DJ you look up to and why?

I look up to DJ Jaivane, The genre he is into interests me and I am mostly inspired by how he built himself as a person and as a brand, which is something I hope to do in future,

Why did you venture into Hosting and MCing?

When you're still building your name, it becomes harder to get opportunities to perform at events, and with the Covid-19 pandemic occurring, it even became harder. So once the regulation eased I started hosting and MCing mini events for upcoming DJs around my community to build their names and be known, because I have first hand experience as to how hard it is to get your name out there. And it so happens that I enjoy bringing people together.

If you were only allowed to choose one thing to do for the rest of your life, what would it be and why? (Between DJing and MCing?)
I would choose being a DJ, because I am happiest when I am behind the decks.

If you could have any super power what would it be?

It would be Telekinesis.

What is the most adventurous thing you have ever done?

I am not a really adventurous person, but the most daring thing I have done in terms to my work, is while on the decks, trying to change genres with headphones and syncing while performing live.

If you could have one day where Technology doesn't existing, meaning no cellphones, video games etc, what would you get up to?

I would probably try to do an outdoor activity like Hiking.

If you were given a chance to write a book, what would it be about? I would definitely write about my music

What are current goals for this year?

My goals this year to release my first album, whole making sure that my school marks are still above average.

Where would you like to see yourself in 5 years times?

in terms of my schooling, I would like to see myself have a tertiary qualification in sound engineering and music and also to be able to feature big time artists such as Josiah de Disciple.

What is the most challenging thing you have done, and how did you manage to succeed?

At this point the most challenging thing that I have ever been faced with is still having faith in myself and not giving up, in terms of succeeding with my music especially when the pandemic hit.

Who is your role model?

My Dad is my role-model.

If you could be president for one day, what would you like to see happen?

I would try to sustain stability and peace within the county, especially with rise of gender based violence crimes, it is disheartening.

I would also try to bring equality to the economy.

PLEA TO THE PRESIDENT

Dear Mr President.

Abuse has been one of my biggest concerns' hence I decided to get involved in trying to help tackle it. Sports are vital to keeping our peers out of the streets and out of mischievous actions or behavior. Over the years, I have achieved several awards through the activities mentioned above. I, therefore, decided to choose one of them to join those who are putting up a fight against Abuse. I started #Kar.Attacking Abuse to produce and sell products with a symbol and messages that will help me raise abuse awareness, I aim to take a portion of the proceeds and establish recreational facilities with various sports activities, preferably aiming at previously disadvantaged communities.

Mr. President, I won't be able to do that anytime soon because it wouldn't be easy for me to raise money, build many recreational facilities and take as many children as I can out of the streets. I am asking you to help me to help them establish their identity within the context of goal setting. Education is an important tool however' goals can have an impact on an individual's entire existence. I am not sure what they meant when they said that life begins at 40. All I know is it's never too early to learn. We can achieve everything we want. We are not too young to lead and teach or start leaving our dream.

Mr. President, for our next generation to be better than today's generation, we need to start now to set the foundation for success.

I have a plan. Mr. President, please hear me out

PLEA TO THE PRESIDENT

Dear Mr President.

As a 12 year old living in South Africa and seeing people suffering in our country, my plea to the President is for every child to have the right to education and freedom.

The government should by all means provide good quality education and make it accessible to children who do not have the privilege of being in school.

Education is a basic human right and it is important for everyone. If we can all be granted some form of education, the country's economy will be uplifted drastically and crime in South Africa will eventually go down.

Having education helps people to have access to other basic rights and privileges. It improves an individual's chances in life and helps to tackle poverty. It also decreases social inequalities, and empowers women and children to start being recognized and taken into consideration and also helps them to reach their fullest potential. Education also brings significant economic returns for a country and helps societies to achieve lasting peace and sustainable development.

Education is the key to success. If all children can get education, an economic foundation for the country's future generations will be formed and our country will be well developed due to that.

PLEA TO THE PRESIDENT

Dear Mr. President

My plea to you Sir is simple, I would like to see Change.

Change in employment, as the youth of this country, we aspire to be doctors, teachers, lawyers, accountants but our aspirations are being demotivated by the increasing unemployment rate especially amongst the youth, how are we supposed to have such great aspiration with the future looking less promising everyday.

I would like to see change in the education systems, especially in government schools, can we not provide private schools quality of teaching to government schools. Not every child will get the opportunity to study at a private school, but every child deserves the opportunity to quality education. While on the topic of government institutes, something has to be done about the quality of public hospitals and clinics. The state in which these institutes are, is saddening. Something has to be done Mr President.

As a whole, we need more government services like: Police Stations, Clinics, Fire Stations and saftey Homes for the less privileged and orphans, this will also combat the issue of unemployment.
