*My Queen Motivator. Thoughtful.
Hardworking. Extraordinary. Remarkable.
A mother. My mother. Having this amazing woman as my mother is a huge blessing that I am very thankful for. Someone who loves me unconditionally and sees the best in me, Someone who sacrifices so many things just to see a smile on my face, Someone who pushes me to do my best and be the best person I can be, Not only a mother but a friend I can always count on. Thank you so much for everything that you have done for me, loving me, caring for me, helping me and being there when I need you. Most importantly, thank you for always reminding me that God is and will always be on the throne. I love you so much and I am proud to call you my mother.*

MOTHER, A CRADLE TO HOLD ME
BY MAYA ANGELOU

*“It is true
I was created in you.
It is also true
That you were created for me.
I owned your voice.
It was shaped and tuned to soothe me.
Your arms were molded Into a cradle to hold me, to rock me.
The scent of your body was the air
Perfumed for me to breathe.
Mother,
During those early, dearest days
I did not dream that you had A large life which included
me,
For I had a life
Which was only you.*

*Time passed steadily and drew us apart.
I was unwilling.
I feared if I let you go
You would leave me eternally.
You smiled at my fears, saying I could not stay in your lap forever.
That one day you would have to stand
And where would I be?
You smiled again.
I did not.
Without warning you left me,
But you returned immediately.
You left again and returned,
I admit, quickly,
But relief did not rest with me easily.
You left again, but again returned.
You left again, but again returned.
Each time you reentered my world
You brought assurance.
Slowly I gained confidence.*

*You thought you know me,
But I did know you,
You thought you were watching me,
But I did hold you securely in my sight,
Recording every moment,
Memorizing your smiles,
tracing your frowns.
In your absence
I rehearsed you,
The way you had of singing
On a breeze,
While a sob lay
At the root of your song.*

*The way you posed your head
So that the light could caress your face
When you put your fingers on my hand
And your hand on my arm, I was blessed with a sense of health,
Of strength and very good fortune.
You were always the heart of happiness to me,
Bringing nougats of glee,
Sweets of open laughter.*

I loved you even during the years

When you knew nothing And I knew everything, I loved you still.

*Condescendingly of course,
From my high perch
Of teenage wisdom.*

I spoke sharply of you, often Because you were slow to understand.

I grew older and Was stunned to find How much knowledge you had gleaned.

And so quickly.

Mother, I have learned enough now

To know I have learned nearly nothing.

On this day

When mothers are being honored,

Let me thank you

That my selfishness, ignorance, and mockery

Did not bring you to

*Discard me like a broken doll
Which had lost its favor.*

I thank you that

You still find something in me

To cherish, to admire and to love.

I thank you, Mother.

I love you."
